My Dear Sir

I assure you that I feel sincerely obliged to you for this fresh proof of your disposition to aid
me in my literary labors.

It does come too late for the first edition of my new book - but it will enable me to correct the second with a very graphic description of the mode of making a Chief Justice in the reign of Elizabeth.

I remain

Yours very faithfully

Barthol

J. Payne Collier Esq
